I write to music so that's why I'm sharing some links :)

Below are some thoughts I had at the end of 2022.

In this century of freedom, I think of the importance of expression, freedom of speech, identity and creativity. We all have this power to express who we are to the world which we were born in. Don't stay silent or afraid to take your place. Your voice matters, even if you sound like a fool. Your place matters, even if you don't feel welcome. You belong! We belong!

Why do I write? It's how I express myself and who I am.

Nothing is more satisfying than being able to create brand new worlds, using imagination and abstraction to build something entertaining, then putting it out there. I love being able to add value to the world, leave something behind that defines who I am, something that's feminine but also a tomboy, writing dark fantasies with ultra sexy beasts to have fun!!!! There is no purpose beyond the fun of it all, love of life and the expression of passionate love for love.

It's the first time in history that women have had such an ability to project their voice, their desires and their passions, in so many formats which give us the ability to express who we are. It doesn't matter what you are, a doctor, teacher, stay at home mother, romance author, influencer, beautician, gamer, whatever you are, literally whatever you are, the internet gives you a voice to express that and leave an imprint, a mark in history to represent whatever you want. It doesn't matter if it's politically correct, it doesn't matter if it's boring, it doesn't matter if it's cliché. It doesn't matter if it's just a selfie of your face, haha!! It all leaves a mark for history. I would encourage everyone to do some act of creativity, it doesn't hurt anyone, it expresses human soul-stuff, whether it's dark or light. Create and express who you are to the world. Leave a mark. No matter what it is. Just speak up, whether you're wrong, right or in-between, being human is complicated. Talk about how it's complicated, what YOU feel = we ALL feel, that's why expression is important, it connects us all together.

If you don't speak, others will for you!
